SOCIAL PROBLEMS.

The above will be the theme of an address by Mr. Lavin C. Phillips at the Young Men's Christian Association tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Many problems present themselves to thinking young men; one of the most vital is the question of social relations; what is the proper stand for a young man to take concerning many of the customs of social life to-day? The discussion of this theme by Mr. Phillips will prove exceedingly helpful to every young man. He is well known as an earnest and pleasing speaker. The service of song will begin at 4 o'clock.

The Boys' Gospel Army meets at 3 o'clock and the Bible Training Class at 5 p. m.

DIVINE SERVICES TO-MORROW.

Monumental Church — Services for Sunday: Preaching by the pastor, Rev. L. B. Betty at 11 a. m. Subject, "Judge not, and reasons why we should not judge others." 7:45 p. m. Subject, "Mutual confession of faults, followed by mutual prayer, and the advantages thereof."

BERKLEY.

Miss Penney Gayle and Mr. Clayton G. Wallace, of South Norfolk, were married Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed in the parsonage of Rev. Paul Bradley, of the South Norfolk M. E. Church, Mr. Bradley officiating. Only a few friends of the contracting parties witnessed the event.

The ice cream social given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Main Street Christian Church at the residence of Mrs. Axie Baxter, on Liberty street extended, last night, was the source of much enjoyment. The program, consisting of recitations, vocal and instrumental music, was excellent. Following were the participants: Misses W. B. Snow, E. W. Huntington and Miss Parle Butler and Miss Nettie Brown. Miss Nannie Eley furnished instrumental music.

Attorney George D. Parker, Jr. is quite sick at his home, on Pine street. Judge George D. Parker, who has been confined to his residence, on Pine street, several weeks, is convalescing and it is thought he will be able to be on the street as soon as the weather is favorable.

Rev. S. Robinson, of London Bridge, who accepted the pastorate of the South Norfolk Baptist Church about a month ago, has removed his family to Oakdale and entered upon the service of the church. Mr. Robinson comes to this section highly recommended as a pastor. He will preach Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Mayor McCoy has issued an order prohibiting boys from congregating and converting the sidewalks into skating rinks.

Mr. Brooks, of the Bank of Berkley, and Mr. J. L. Grimes are conducting a fine insurance business in the town. Old Captain George Briggs, well known by the people of the town because of his humble residence, on the river shore, near Little Bridge, died last week, near Blossom Hill, Va. He was spending the winter trapping in that section. His remains were buried by the citizens of the community in which he had lived.

The Pandazie Social Club held another social session last night at the residence of Miss Jessie Wicks, on Berkley avenue.

Mr. Phillip Jones, after being confined to his home, on Washington street, for several days with grip, was out yesterday.

THE SENATOR IN PORT.

The steam yacht Senator, owned by Mr. C. H. Fuller, of the Rhode Island Yacht Club, in command of Captain Baker, is lying at Bliven's wharf. Mr. Fuller, wife and two daughters, together with the crew, have been on the Pandazie, Albemarle and Currituck sounds for the past three weeks enjoying the sports of that section. The Senator will remain here about a week for some slight repairs to be made. The yacht is a very handsome little craft and her crew are a jovial set of good fellows. From here the Senator will proceed up the James, visiting the different points of historical note on that river.

FOR FREE ROADS.

[Communicated.]

Norfolk, Va., March 10, 1899.

An Open Letter to the City and County Authorities:

Gentlemen,—There has occurred within the past thirty days two events that are of such public importance that it seems to me the time is very opportune to strike for free roads. The free bridges that we all welcome as of such benefit are comparatively insignificant in comparison to that relic of past ages, the toll gates, that set like watch-dogs, levying tribute on every one who wishes to go in or out of our city. As the harbor route is the only one that is open for ingress or egress, it is time to revive with a slight change the old war-cry: "Not one cent for toll tribute, but the NECESSARY FUNDS to set free our gates and remove the unnatural tax on the people who come to trade with us."

This cry can be accentuated, now that there has been placed annually the sum of $81,000 in the coffers of the county and our sister city of Portsmouth, and the same argument applies to her.

It goes without saying that we have not a word to say against the corporations who own the right by charter to collect a tax for passing over these roads, which really belong to the county. Indeed, I have been given to understand that some of them see the importance of free roads, and will sell at really less than their franchise is worth. We hope it is so, as it will facilitate matters towards our future freedom.

Now, while it is fresh in our minds, this gift of such an increase in the ferry rent and the joy of free bridges, is the time to move in the matter, so that when our visitors to the May Carnival come to this city, at least be told the time is at hand, and that yet before 1899 is announced, all roads will be wiped off the face of this fair section.

This is by NO means a matter of sentiment, but pure abstract business. Let me give a few illustrations, the names of the parties are with me and can be had if wished:

A gentleman from near Chicago has invested a number of thousands of dollars in land near the city; intended to make extensive improvements, but he tells me the tax is so large and the more he improves the larger it gets, that the entire property is for sale at less than same kind of land is held at, and he will quit.

Another party started a small dairy and truck garden. His daily trips have caused much injury in his profits, that he could no longer carry business, but must fail or move INSIDE the tolls, which he has, and now reports satisfactory business.

Another party from Pennsylvania will remove their plant to Norfolk and locate on the Berkley side of the river at the junction of Tenth street and the Norfolk and Western railroad, where they will manufacture and repair all kinds of Circular Saws.

GRATITUDE.

Amid the tombs, with their spires of white, Or Granite, old and gray, A friendless, forgotten, homeless dog With bent head wends his way, And crawls beside a nameless grave To pray as a dog can pray: For the hand that lies beneath the sod.

In the name of human right, One bound the wound of the homeless dog: That whines at the grave to-night And as the moon sheds down from Heaven The light of nature's rays, A lost life kneels beside the tomb, To pray as a woman prays: For the hand that now, so cold and still, In the nameless grave abides, Once guided and protected her, His pride and friends defied, And lifted her from the mire of shame When the world had turned aside.

—ARTHUR C. LEWIS, in "Book of the Royal Blue."

PROSPEROUS SOUTHERN LINES.

The gross earnings of the principal railroad systems of the country for 1898 show some encouragingly large increases. According to the Financial Chronicle, seventy-one systems showed increases of over $200,000 each. It is noticeable that among these are nineteen Southern companies. They include the Illinois Central, $2,841,000; Southern, $2,444,000; Baltimore and Ohio, $2,212,000; Missouri Pacific, $1,969,000; Louisville and Nashville, $1,956,000; Queen and Crescent, $1,000,000; Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf, $854,000; Florida Central and Peninsular, $772,000; St. Louis Southwestern, $708,000; Savannah, Florida and Western, $677,000; Chesapeake and Ohio, $602,000; Norfolk and Western, $512,000; St. Louis and San Francisco, $501,000; Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis, $473,000; Texas and Pacific, $325,000; Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham, $260,699; Mobile and Ohio, $421,000; International and Great Northern, $251,000.

Out of eleven roads showing decreases of $200,000 and over, not one is in the South.

Frank Breed, a retired shoe manufacturer of Lynn, Mass., has offered to present to that city a collection of animals for the founding of a zoological garden, provided that the municipal authorities shall set aside and fence in a suitable area in Lynn Woods. The offer was made to Mayor Ramsdell last fall, but was temporarily declined. It has now been renewed, and the city authorities have the matter under consideration.

"Beauty and Power."

The secret of a woman's power is in her complete womanliness, both physical and mental. It does not mean perfection of outline nor regularity of features. It does not mean wit, nor talents nor a collection of accomplishments. It means that physical attractiveness that comes from perfect bodily constitution and the bright, happy cheerfulness of disposition which only complete health can insure.

A woman with a bright eye, clear complexion, wanting color in the cheeks and buoyant step and manner has a natural attractiveness that no artificial agency can counterfeit.

A woman who is afflicted with the mortifying misfortune of a dull, sallow, pimply complexion or that listless movement and attitude which provokes only disgust and revulsion in the opposite sex, ought to avail herself of the purifying, invigorating power of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which makes a strong, healthy stomach and digestive organism; purifies the blood and imparts a natural stimulus to the excretory functions; insures healthy weight, clear skin, bright eyes and the animated manner and bearing of perfect health.

A lady living in West Virginia, Miss Anna Callow, of Kyger, Roane Co., writes: "It is with pleasure I write you after using a few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and I think them valuable medicines for female troubles and weaknesses. I could hardly go about my work, and such inward weakness and misery in the womb. It worried me so that I would give out in walking a short distance. I had a hard time to get my legs to move and my eyes would get so heavy in the evening they seemed stiff in the lids. I could hardly see them. Many persons were alarmed about me. I looked so sad and had such a cough, they were afraid I would go into consumption. I felt so badly every day that I had no life about me. I used only few bottles in all. I shall ever speak in praise of your grand medicines. They are blessings to suffering females."

Another good thing to have in the house is a vial of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These cure biliousness and constipation and never gripe.

WINE OF CARDUI

A Sure Medicine.

HANDSOM, VA., Dec. 31.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?
